Loger Lafforme Dave Parfents: Northelictural Maille Benice Grossinges Day Sinchean & Kristine Fagie of the W madore Minla Jenn Bro Wood Hargetto Himetto april Oleff M. Bouge Rha MISON Know Chapt Claude morin Eduline Dogor Jose a Abarran Whilepiis In Rick Danis anna Guttovhu Donn Il Heather Novel Moneir O Da Man For Low Jac Za' Léonie Dagonais Walson Craff Schora Hampion Cirile Trouts Lin More Dogumen Frontline education workers deserve a fair deal now! (W) The Quayde Hutchings Muduly Venni Ker Last fall, the 160 education workers who provide education services at 12 elementary schools, one HW/ SAM Harry Yisa Tickur high school, an adult continuing education centre, and your school board office voted 97% to strike, if necessary, to win gains for student success and good jobs in our collective agreement. Laura Beliale Mil The But Carestette Hodmane It's been more than seven weeks since Northeastern Catholic negotiators last met with our bargaining committee on March 8. We requested conciliation on March 10 and a conciliator was Hailey Deadman Both & Vahne J. C. Vachon for Seur Devon assigned by the Ministry of Labour on March 24. The main outstanding issues are: Reto Sygnon Janny Aplette Noteen Desormens 1. Stopping contracting out and hiring three more full-time IT workers ✓ This will save money, mean better service for students, and better jobs for our community. lane Nevy Jaan grigdenomi Mora Theor SHIRLEY ISEPHEE 2. Equity for education workers in Moosonee ✓ Retaining workers in this fly-in community is crucial to have continuity for children Rita Joron John (Frith SPR and enough staff to provide the services parents expect in public schools. 3. Allowing us to use the vacation time we've earned To famely Comin Last Briting Frenchay ✓ Approval of taking one more day off, instead of just two, will help workers to spend time with their own families. luburg Min Lille Because we don't yet have a local agreement, the lowest-paid education workers have still not received the $1 per hour wage increase we already secured in our central negotiations last fall. Maguette Davin Binki Slave Loster It's time for Northeastern Catholic District School Board to do the right thing! Milon Ly Mennis Patricia Beau Freak Reach an agreement with our bargaining committee now and avert the first local strike by frontline education workers anywhere in Ontario this year. Amberlidet Jen Rod andrea Toner Klewin Sincerely, CUPE Local 4681 members Value Best Photogra Kara Brown Polece The frontline education workers of Northeastern Catholic District School Board. Blombrost motosper Len by CUPE 4681 CUPE · SCFP Karen Laprenière Kelly Downer Valuas Who fat fein Town Phillips ann Shillinglaw Copy Dalen Misson Ouffy Dalo Margo Delport and Wonzo lain Tune Shelley Lucue Content Smith Melanie Beuchy Kawainer Sphoto Jacquie Dusauch 1865 50 South Melanie Beuchy Buitan Shiffel a Ketallin CHearly Gl. God Taip Halt photoched lays by Do Grown Rockinger (Take thelanic Burdey My Gully published for the business Bussian My Barles Jana Savice Succes And Line Lynda Scott Muguette Wendy Lavaller Borbara Shallow War &